Investment objective

The investment objective of the Fund is to seek to generate total returns through income and capital appreciation, while limiting volatility and potential capital losses. The Fund has an unconstrained, long-bias and seeks to achieve its objective by investing across the spectrum of the emerging market debt universe including bonds, interest rates, currencies and credit default swaps. The Fund aims to deliver a flexible "all weather" strategy designed to deliver an optimal yield—liquidity—volatility profile throughout the market cycle.

Average Duration	5.6
Average Maturity (Years)	7.0
Gross Exposure (%)	152.8
Net Exposure (%)	64.4
Current Yield	6.8
Yield to Worst	8.6
Yield to Maturity	8.7

Any yields quoted on the fact sheet are calculated at portfolio level gross of tax and expenses.

- Current Yield is the annual interest earned on the underlying bonds divided by the market price of the underlying portfolio of bonds. The figure is not the dividend yield received by the investors and is subject to change depending on the underlying portfolio of bonds.
- Yield to Worst is the lowest potential yield that can be received on a bond without the issuer actually defaulting. The yield to worst is calculated by making the worst-case scenario assumptions on the issue.
- Yield to Maturity is a concept used to determine the rate of return an investor will receive if a long-term, interest-bearing investment, such as a bond, is held to its maturity date. Please note that this is not the return or dividend to be received by investors in the fund.

Risk warnings

- The market value of debt securities is affected by changes in prevailing interest rates and the Fund may be exposed to credit risk by investing in debt securities.
- There are specific risks associated with the use of derivative instruments, including counterparty, position, liquidity, settlement, correlation and legal risk.
- Default risk and liquidity risk associated with investment in below investment grade securities.
- There are specific risks associated with investments in emerging markets, including legal, political, fiscal instability, settlement, liquidity, currency, accounting standards and custodial risk.
- There may be corporate governance and investor protection issues associated with Russian investments.
- Contingent Convertible Securities risk is due by the substantially greater risk that these instruments may have compared to other forms of securities in times of credit stress and may result in a material loss to the Fund.
- The Fund's investments may be in currencies other than US Dollars. The value of an investment may fluctuate due to changes in exchange rates between currencies or the possible imposition of exchange control regulations.
- Currency hedging may reduce but will not remove risk. Hedging will incur more transaction costs and fees, which will affect overall return.

Performance note

*Index disclosure: The Fund is actively managed and aims to provide an absolute return. The portfolio manager maintains full discretion to select investments for the Fund in line with the above investment policy. The Manager may, from time to time, determine to include information in its marketing materials relative to the Index; however, the Index composition is not factored into the investment management process.

This document presents the performance of this particular unit class of the Fund from the date of inception of the unit class in its unit class currency, as specified on the front page. Performance since inception date of the Fund, which precedes the inception date of the unit class, is available upon request. Prior to 31st December 2018, the data performance calculations reflect the month-end market close prices of the Fund's assets. After 1 January 2019, the performance data shown is based upon the Fund's Net Asset Value (NAV) prices of the last Irish business day of the month. For Funds not open for dealing on this day this will be an indicative NAV. As a result, it is possible that the stated performance and the actual investment returns available to investors will differ. The performance data shown is net of fees and other charges but excludes any potential entry/exit charges – as such the returns an investor receives may be lower.

Disclosure

Principal Global Investors ("PGI") is the asset management arm of the Principal Financial Group, and includes (amongst other entities): Principal Global Investors LLC ("PGI LLC"), Principal Global Investors (Europe) Limited ("PGIE") and any Sub-Investment Managers to the Fund. PGIE has been appointed as Distributor for the Fund and has identified that the Fund is compatible with the needs, characteristics and objectives of both institutional and retail investors. Please note however that PGI does not distribute directly to retail investors who should seek independent investment advice before deciding whether the fund in question is suitable to meet their investment needs and objectives. Full details of the risks associated with investing in the Fund are detailed in the Fund Prospectus, Supplement and Key Investor Information Document ("KIID").
